I am wondering how to run a commit in Android studio. This is on an external Nexus 5X. I switched to developer mode but that has no effect. I wrote a push on the device which created a new commit, so I would like to checkout this commit. When I do: "Checkout -> from branch" Check out on branch The Check out dialog is not open Right click on the "branch" and select "Checkout to repo/path" I cannot see the "branch" in the branches list A: In Android Studio: Open "Team/Team Settings" and select the "Local Git Repository". Then select the Repository and choose "Branch" from the right-side menu. You will then be able to select any branch from the left-side menu. Remember to "close" Android Studio after making changes. 1. Field of the Invention This invention relates to multi
