In comments published on Thursday in The Guardian, government minister Dominic Raab said: "We are conducting a full assessment of all the potential implications, both legal and otherwise, for the final stages of our arms exports to Saudi Arabia." There are understandably many reasons why the arms trade is controversial - and the Saudi-led coalition's war in Yemen certainly figures high on the list. But the UK is also prone to tensions with human rights and environmental standards: the government told Parliament in June 2018 that at least eight UK-made weapon systems have been used in the conflict, and raised concerns about the "impact of the war on civilians". In a House of Commons debate on Wednesday, Labour's shadow foreign minister Emily Thornberry referred to the number of civilians killed: "No-one denies that the situation in Yemen is appalling. But the government is not helping. Aid 0cc13bf012

Help come out and celebrate together with family, friends and health care workers. Run in the stunning Byron Bay landscape, with plenty of views of the Coast and Lumbung Bay, this is the perfect post-Smoke run for the family. The course is 4.5 kilometres and is a great post-Smoke run that covers a wide area of Western NSW with some lovely scenery, beautiful ocean views and stands of rainforest. This is a road running event and is a very flat course and the best part of the course is the start and finish area in the heart of Byron Bay at 10am, with your beers and breakfast at the top of the course you can mark this as one of the biggest Post-Smoke Runs in the Country! The Byron Bay Half Marathon & Fun Run is definitely one of the major events for this part of the North Coast, so you're guaranteed a warm welcome from Byron locals when you cross the finish line and talk about how awesome this place is! If you have a
