np5011pdf11] In Russia, as well as throughout the world, the demand for e-books is growing. And although there is no single standard for such devices in the country yet, this does not interfere with their development. Now more and more manufacturers include such models in their lines, which means that the range on the market is rapidly expanding. At the same time, more and more people are interested in how to choose an e-book and not make a mistake. After all, it directly depends on how convenient and functional this device will be. How to choose an e-book
